Cape Town, South Africa, is a vibrant and cosmopolitan city with a rich history and culture. It's also a great place to find affordable and exciting things to do. Here are 20 activities that you can enjoy in Cape Town for less than 20 pounds:

1. Visit Table Mountain

Table Mountain is one of Cape Town's most iconic landmarks, and it's also a great place to go for a hike. There are several different trails to choose from, ranging from easy to challenging. The views from the top are incredible, and you'll feel like you're on top of the world.

2. Take a ferry to Robben Island

Robben Island is a small island located in Table Bay. It's where Nelson Mandela was imprisoned for 18 years. Today, the island is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and you can take a ferry to visit the prison and learn about the history of apartheid in South Africa.

3. Explore the V&A Waterfront

The V&A Waterfront is a large shopping and entertainment complex located on the waterfront in Cape Town. There are over 400 shops, restaurants, and bars, as well as a variety of attractions, such as the Two Oceans Aquarium and the Cape Wheel.

4. Visit the Kirstenbosch National Botanical Garden

The Kirstenbosch National Botanical Garden is a beautiful botanical garden located on the eastern slopes of Table Mountain. There are over 7,000 species of plants in the garden, and it's a great place to learn about the native flora of South Africa.

5. Go surfing at Muizenberg Beach

Muizenberg Beach is a popular surfing spot located about 30 minutes from Cape Town. The waves are gentle and perfect for beginners, and there are several surf schools where you can rent a board and take lessons.

6. Visit the Cape of Good Hope

The Cape of Good Hope is the southernmost point of Africa. It's a beautiful and rugged place, and it's a great place to go for a hike or a picnic.

7. Go on a wine tour

The Cape Winelands are located just outside of Cape Town, and they're home to some of the best vineyards in the world. You can go on a wine tour to visit the vineyards, sample the wines, and learn about the winemaking process.

8. Visit the District Six Museum

The District Six Museum is a museum that tells the story of the forced removal of the District Six community during apartheid. It's a powerful and moving museum, and it's a great place to learn about the history of apartheid in South Africa.

9. Go on a township tour

Township tours are a great way to learn about the history and culture of the townships in Cape Town. You can visit the homes of local people, learn about their lives, and see how they're working to improve their communities.

10. Take a cooking class

Cooking classes are a great way to learn about the local cuisine and culture. You can learn how to make traditional South African dishes, such as braai (barbecue) and bobotie (a minced meat dish).

11. Go on a safari

There are several game reserves located near Cape Town, where you can go on a safari to see the Big Five (lions, elephants, leopards, rhinos, and buffalo). You can also go on a whale-watching safari during the winter months.

12. Visit the Two Oceans Aquarium

The Two Oceans Aquarium is a large aquarium located on the V&A Waterfront. It's home to over 3,000 marine animals from the Atlantic and Indian Oceans.
