A Symphony of Rhyme and Rhythm

Each poem in this collection is a masterpiece of rhyme and rhythm, captivating the ear with its melodic flow and enchanting the mind with its vivid imagery. Kay Moody's skillful use of language creates a symphony of words that dances across the page, painting pictures in your imagination and stirring your soul.

Little Birds

Little birds how do you know that it's time to build a nest,
find a mate, and lay some eggs,
which incubate as you rest?

Regardless of the weather
you know the right time is near.

I look forward to watching your babies when they appear.

Exploring the Depths of Human Emotion

Through her poignant verses, Kay Moody delves into the vast ocean of human emotions. She captures the exhilaration of joy, the anguish of sorrow, the warmth of love, and the fragility of hope. Her poems resonate with universal experiences, allowing readers to connect on a deeply personal level.

Whether you seek solace, inspiration, or simply a moment of quiet reflection, "73 Poems That Rhyme" offers a sanctuary for your soul.

Unveiling Life's Meaning and Purpose

Beyond its emotional depth, this collection invites you on a philosophical journey. Moody's poems explore the profound questions of life's purpose and meaning. She reflects on the interconnectedness of all things, the importance of self-discovery, and the enduring power of human spirit.

Through her lyrical musings, she encourages readers to embrace their unique path, to seek beauty in everyday moments, and to find gratitude in the midst of life's challenges.

True Philosophy

I wouldn't count it worth my while
To sing about a rich man's smile,
Or quote a fellow, trouble-free,
An' label that philosophy.

But when I look about and find
A cripple or a brother blind,
An' hear him singing songs of glee,
I want that man's philosophy.
