The Johnsons are a typical American family: mom, dad, two kids, and a dog. But this year, Christmas is anything but typical. The tree is crooked, the presents are wrapped in mismatched paper, and the turkey is...well, let's just say it's not quite cooked.

But despite all the mishaps, the Johnsons refuse to let their Christmas spirit be dampened. They laugh, they sing, and they share stories. And in the end, they realize that the perfect Christmas isn't about perfection at all. It's about spending time with the people you love and creating memories that will last a lifetime.
