When she is assigned to serve the enigmatic Commander Jax, she sees a glimmer of possibility. Jax is a man who is as cold and ruthless as he is handsome. He is responsible for Eliana's imprisonment, but he also seems to be intrigued by her. As they spend more time together, Eliana begins to question everything she thought she knew about Jax and about herself.

As their bond grows stronger, so does the danger. The authorities are determined to keep them apart, and they will stop at nothing to destroy their forbidden love. Eliana and Jax must fight for their survival, but their love for each other may be the only thing that can save them.
