Delve into the Crucible of American History

Our adventure begins in Jamestown, Virginia, the birthplace of the first permanent English colony in North America. Walk in the footsteps of the intrepid colonists as we explore the archaeological remains, remnants of their struggles and triumphs. From the shores of the Chesapeake Bay to the heart of the historic district, we'll uncover the origins of American democracy and the complex relationships between settlers and Native Americans.

From Virginia, we journey north to Plymouth, Massachusetts, where the Pilgrims established a new home in the 17th century. At the iconic Plimoth Patuxet Museums, we'll immerse ourselves in the lives of these religious dissenters and their remarkable collaboration with the Wampanoag people.

Witness the Birth of American Ideals

As we continue our trek, we'll visit the Massachusetts Bay Colony, a hotbed of intellectual and political ferment. In Boston, the cradle of the American Revolution, we'll delve into the ideas and events that ignited the fight for independence. From the Boston Tea Party to the Battle of Bunker Hill, we'll explore the landmarks and hear the stories that shaped the course of history.

Our journey continues to Connecticut, where we'll discover the legacy of the Puritans and their enduring influence on American society. We'll visit the Old State House in Hartford, where the Fundamental Free Downloads of Connecticut, one of the first written constitutions in the Western world, was adopted.

Uncover Hidden Gems and Untold Stories

Beyond the iconic destinations, the Colonies Trek will venture off the beaten path to reveal lesser-known stories and hidden gems. We'll explore the vibrant fishing village of Mystic, Connecticut, and learn about its role in the American Revolution. In Rhode Island, we'll uncover the fascinating history of the colony founded by religious refugees and its pioneering role in the abolitionist movement.

Throughout our adventure, Debra Collett will provide invaluable insights and historical context. Her expertise and passion for the subject will bring the past to life and illuminate the complexities of America's colonial era.
