Invincible is one of the most popular comic book series of the 21st century. Created by Robert Kirkman, the series follows the adventures of Mark Grayson, a teenage boy who inherits superpowers from his father, Omni-Man.

Invincible 65 is the latest installment in the series, and it features a thrilling showdown between Invincible and his most powerful opponent yet. The issue is packed with action, adventure, and suspense, and it is sure to keep readers on the edge of their seats.

The Story

Invincible 65 opens with Invincible and his allies reeling from the events of the previous issue. The Viltrumites, a race of super-powered aliens, have invaded Earth, and they are determined to conquer the planet.

Invincible and his friends must band together to stop the Viltrumites, but they are outmatched. The Viltrumites are stronger, faster, and more powerful than anything Invincible has ever faced before.

As the battle rages on, Invincible finds himself face-to-face with the Viltrumite leader, Thragg. Thragg is the most powerful Viltrumite of all, and he is determined to destroy Invincible.

Invincible and Thragg engage in a brutal battle that spans several pages. The two warriors trade blows, and they both refuse to give up. In the end, it is Invincible who emerges victorious.

The Characters

Invincible 65 features a cast of complex and well-developed characters. Invincible is a likable and relatable hero, and he is easy to root for. Thragg is a formidable villain, and he is a worthy adversary for Invincible.

The other characters in the issue are also well-written. They each have their own unique personalities and motivations, and they all play an important role in the story.

The Artwork

The artwork in Invincible 65 is top-notch. The panels are dynamic and exciting, and the characters are expressive and well-rendered.
