President Hamilton is a novel of alternative history that explores this question. The novel follows Hamilton's life from his childhood in the Caribbean to his death in a duel with Aaron Burr. Along the way, he becomes a leading figure in the American Revolution, helps to write the Constitution, and serves as the first Secretary of the Treasury.

But what if he had become President?

President Hamilton is a fascinating and thought-provoking novel that explores the possible consequences of a different historical outcome. It is a must-read for fans of alternative history and American history.

About the Author
